

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC rules.

Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

- 1) This device may not cause any harmful interference, and
- 2) This device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesirable operation.